

CHESS CLASS AT MAPLEWOOD

EASTON RECREATION DEPARTMENT

Grades 1-5 Common Sense Chess provides students the very best tools to learn and grow as chess players.

COMMON SENSE CHESS CLASS: Joe Martin, has been teaching chess for over ten years and offers a unique approach to chess education.

At its core, Common Sense Chess is based on student choices. Everyone learns in different ways and at different paces, Joe believes to truly teach, a program must allow students to follow their strengths and interests. He has created an environment to provide students the very best tools to learn and grow as chess players.

Did you Know? Chess helps students learn numerous important life skills, such as resource/time management and the value of forethought. Studies have also linked playing chess to greater creativity, better concentration, improved memory, increased comprehension, and even better academic / work performance!
